grounds looking good. She helps oversee renovations on campus. Sandy says "it's satisfying and gratifying to see the end result of the work in her department.

The most challenging aspect of her job is handling of all the many phone calls she receives and getting, in a timely manner, the problems resolved.

Sandy was born and raised in Montgomery, Ala. She has three brothers and one sister. Her immediate family includes her husband, Dennis, her son Tony, and her black Labrador, Levi, who she describes as a "sweetheart". Sandy is extremely proud of her son who is a Squadron Commander at Maxwell Airforce Base in Montgomery, Ala. He was recently promoted to Lt. Colonel. His wife is Major Lara Haught and both are the proud parents of Noah Robert Haught, who was born July 17, 2007. Noah is his parents, as well as Sandy's, pride and joy.

Sandy loves the beauty of Clayton State's campus and the family atmosphere. She currently serves as a CSU Laker Angel.

Sandy likes to keep things simple and her goal is to stay happy. She is an outstanding asset to Plant Operations and more importantly to Clayton State University. Thank you Sandy for all that you do.
